

WESTERN COLORADO WATERCOLOR SOCIETY
P.O. Box 3584
Grand Junction, Colorado 81502-3584

Each year, Western Colorado Watercolor Society holds an exhibition for just their membership. This year, the show will be during October in the front gallery of The Western Colorado Center for the Arts, 7th and Orchard in Grand Junction. The show is juried for awards and WCWS sponsors cash awards to the Best of Show, first, second and third.

This year, we are also asking our friends and art lovers to sponsor a DONOR AWARD to be given to your favorite painting. The award of $25.00 goes directly to the artist whose painting is chosen. If you are interested in purchasing your selection; the $25.00 donation will go toward the purchase price.

We invite you to fill out the form below, return it with a check made to WCWS. We also invite you to attend the gallery talk at 6:30 pm and/or reception at 7 pm on Friday, October 2 to make your selection. If you can not or prefer the show committee select for you, please indicate this on the form. If you do not attend, the show committee will select for you.

This is a fun way to recognize and reward your favorite. We appreciate your consideration to be a part of our "Donor Award" program. Please respond by Sept. 15 so your name will be displayed as a donor by the painting of your choice.

If mailing the form, please address to: Dani Tupper, 960 Willowood Lane, Delta, Co. 81416.
